PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS

gas, and work-related expenses, many said they do not miss the job. Another study found that the cost of putting two children in childcare exceeded the median annual rent payments in every state.

4/25/12 – WOMEN HEART STRESS – 11 a.m. newscast

CBS-2's Sibila Vargas reports that stress hurts the heart, but especially for women. A study at Penn State has found that when men are under stress, blood flow increases—but in women, blood flow remains the same. Doctors say less blood flow may explain why women are more likely to have heart attacks during stressful times.

5/7/12 – CHEATING WEBSITE – 5 p.m. newscast

CBS-2's Pat Harvey reports that with Mother's Day around the corner, there's a surprising statistic out about women and affairs. A website that promotes cheating on spouses claims more married women join their site after Mother's Day than any other day. The site's founder says that Mother's Day compels women to reflect on whether they're appreciated.

5/13/12 – WORKING MOMS – 6 p.m. newscast

CBS-2's Rob Schmitt reports that a new report by "Expecting Better" says California is number one for working mothers. It says the state gets the top spot because of its flexible leave programs for pregnant women and working mothers. And both state and private workers have nursing-at-work rights.

5/29/12 – HORMONE REPLACEMENT – 5 p.m. newscast

CBS-2's Lisa Sigell reports on how the debate over hormone replacement therapy for women continues. A government task force is telling women there's no benefit using HRT to prevent dementia, bone fractures or heart disease. They do say there's new evidence HRT might increase the threat of blood clots, gall bladder disease and urinary incontinence.

6/9/12 – 'PUSH GIRLS – 7 a.m. newscast

CBS-2's Serene Branson reports that a daring new reality show on the Sundance Channel is getting lots of attention. The show called, "Push Girls" explores the personal lives of four beautiful, ambitious women in Los Angeles, who are also paralyzed. The show demonstrates how these women do not allow themselves time for self-pity or slowing down.

6/13/12 – WOMEN IN FILM – 5 a.m. newscast

CBS-2's Sibila Vargas reports on what was ladies' night for some of Hollywood's biggest stars. The Women in Film organization held its annual 'Crystal + Lucy' Awards Gala in Beverly Hills. Also includes comments by Esteban Volkow, Nora's father; and Patricia and Natalia Volkow, Nora's sisters. (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning, Jonathan Schienberg)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/07/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Family's Honor" In October of 2009, 20-year-old Noor Almaleki and Amal Khalaf, the mother of her boyfriend Marwan, walked out of a Peoria, Arizona DES office and were struck by an SUV driven by Noor's father and Iraqi immigrant, Faleh Hassan Almaleki. Detective Chris Boughey suspected this to be an "honor killing". Honor killing is a practice found in some cultures, that allows a father to kill his daughter if he believes she acted in a dishonorable or disrespectful way. Amal Khalaf survived; however, Noor died from her injuries. The Almaleki family had moved from Iraq to Arizona in the mid 1990's, and Faleh wanted his children to adhere to Iraqi traditions -- but Noor wanted to be a typical American girl. She had been brought back to Iraq to enter an arranged marriage when she was 17, but she left the marriage, returned to the United States, and eventually moved in with her boyfriend, Marwan Khalaf and his mother Amal. Noor's parents made numerous verbal threats to her to return home, but she refused. Soon afterwards, her father struck her with his SUV. Faleh fled the country, but was later apprehended in London, and returned to the United States. He claimed that hitting the two women was an accident, but evidence of incriminating tire marks at the scene and the fact that the vehicle had no brake problems, seemed to indicate otherwise. However, these facts and other incriminating evidence were not enough to convince a jury that Noor's father was guilty of first degree murder. Instead, the jury found Faleh guilty of the lesser charge of second-degree murder, meaning they did not agree the attack on Noor was premeditated, or an honor killing. Judge Roland Steinle sentenced Faleh to 34-and-a-half years in prison for killing Noor and gravely injuring Amal. On-Screen Graphics: While members of Noor's family were questioned about the crime, no one other than her father was charged. Interviewed: Peoria, Arizona Police Detective Chris Boughey; CBS News Consultant Abigail Pesta; Adhi, Noor's friend; Amal Khalaf, Noor's boyfriend's mother; Marwan Khalaf, Noor's boyfriend; Nuha, Noor's friend; Jasvinder Sanghera, founder, Karma Nirvana; Lina, Karma Nirvana caller; Laura Reckart, prosecutor; Elizabeth Mullins, defense attorney; Jeff Kirchler, defense attorney; Charles Cooper, witness; Shaneil Nakamoto, witness; Ali, Noor's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 04/14/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Stranger Beside Me" - On March 18, 2010, Jamie Laiaddee vanished from her home in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona. Her live-in boyfriend Bryan Stewart told everyone she had moved to Denver, Colorado to take a new job. When detectives started searching for Jamie, they discovered Bryan was a con man, and suspected he was also her killer. Jamie and Bryan met through a University of Michigan Alumni Club, and dated for more than two years. Bryan lied to Jamie about most of his life. His real name was Rick Wayne Valentini; he never attended the University of Michigan; he served two years in military prison; and he had three ex-wives and two daughters. When detectives searched Bryan/Rick's apartment they found Jamie's wallet and a small white envelope containing Jamie's driver's license, some credit cards, and her University of Michigan Alumni card, cut up into pieces. Moreover, Bryan/Rick was using her credit cards for online dating websites. He continued to claim Jamie took $100,000 and moved to Colorado for a new job, but this claim was dismissed after Jamie's new boss showed up in court detailing how he had just hired Jamie - in Arizona. A jailhouse snitch took the stand and said Bryan/Rick told him that the police knew he killed Jamie. Bryan/Rick testified last and claimed he and Jamie communicated via e-mail and telephone after her disappearance, but the prosecution forced him to admit he had not seen or spoken to her. On March 24, 2011, a Grand Jury indicted Bryan/Rick on charges of second-degree murder of his girlfriend, Jamie Laiaddee. He was also charged with fraud for using her credit cards without her permission. On-Screen Graphics: Bryan Stewart is now inmate 268586 and is known to his jailers as Rick Wayne Valentini. His sentence for murder and fraud: 54 years. Interviewed: Sheila Dubs, Gweneth Newman and Jennifer Langguth, Jamie's college friends; Vunnee and Jimmy Laiaddee, Jamie's parents; Marlene Buffa, University of Michigan Alumni Group President; Burke Files, private investigator; Troy Spielman, detective; Nate Moffat, detective; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Andrea Aardsma, witness; Kevin Tierney, who would have been Jamie's new boss; David Beauchamp, lawyer; Valarie Shafer, juror; Max Covil, attorney; Leon Lead, juror. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Judy Rybak)
- 04/21/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Mystery on Twin Peaks Drive" - a report on the December 16, 1998 death of Ronda Reynolds, whose husband found her lifeless body with a gunshot wound to the head in her home on Twin Peaks Drive in Toledo, Washington. The death was quickly ruled a suicide. Refusing to accept the findings, Ronda's mother, Barb Thompson, launched her own investigation. She enlisted the help of world-famous true crime writer Ann Rule, who eventually wrote the bestseller "In the Still of the Night", about the case. Their investigation led Washington State authorities to revisit the case by holding a coroner's inquest -- a rare and unusual proceeding -- to determine the cause of death and who might be responsible. The inquest resulted in the death being reclassified as a homicide and it determined that she had died at the hands of either her husband Ronald A. Reynolds and/or Ronald's son, Jonathan A. Reynolds. However, the Lewis County prosecutor announced he would not prosecute either man because most of the evidence had been destroyed after Ronda's death. The case remains an open investigation. On Screen Text graphic: The Reynolds family is contemplating suing Barb Thompson, Ann Rule and the Lewis County Coroner. Changes were proposed to Washington State's law following the Reynold's case. A judge or prosecutor would have to approve any coroner's arrest warrant. Interviewed: Barb Thompson, Ronda Reynolds' mother; Ann Rule, author; Ron Reynolds, husband; Jonathan Reynolds, Ron Reynolds' son from a previous marriage; Detective Jerry Berry and Detective Sergeant Glade Austin, members of the Lewis County Sheriff's Department; Coroner Warren McLeod. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

04/28/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death Wish" - a report on questions surrounding the July 2009 death of Jeffrey Locker, whose body was found slumped over the steering wheel of his car in Harlem, New York. Initially, it appeared that Locker had simply been in the wrong place at the wrong time; however, when authorities tracked Locker's ATM card to Kenneth Minor and questioned him, Minor said Locker had begged Minor to kill him. 48 HOURS MYSTERY interviewed Minor in depth and he described how Locker was circling around a block in Harlem and approached Minor about how to find a gun. Then, Locker told Minor that he wanted him to shoot him. Minor asked for $60, went to buy drugs, and later called Locker and told him he couldn't find a gun. Minor questioned Locker as to why he needed Minor to kill him and Locker explained that he wanted his family to collect millions from his life insurance policies and if he committed suicide, there was no payment on the policy. Furthermore he told Minor how he was caught in a Ponzi scheme and had several lawsuits against him. Minor was promised money from Locker if he helped to kill him, and Locker gave him his ATM card and PIN. As they sat in Locker's car, Minor was asked to get a knife out of the glove compartment, and Locker asked him to hold it at the steering wheel, and Locker lunged at the knife numerous times, killing himself. To help prove Minor's story, his defense lawyer found another man, Melvin Fleming, who said Locker had approached him days prior, with the same request. Instead, Fleming decided to con Locker and did not help him. During Minor's trial, the defense argued that this was a case of assisted suicide. Evidence revealed during the trial highlighted Locker's severe financial troubles, pending lawsuits, and most notably, a multimillion-dollar life insurance policy that Locker had purchased months before his death. The prosecution challenged the assisted suicide claim and argued that Minor was simply a cold-blooded killer. After hours of deliberation, Minor was found guilty of murder and sentenced to 20 years to life. On-Screen Graphics: Locker's widow is suing to get $4 million worth of life insurance from a policy he bought a month-and-a-half before his death. As for the other $8 million in policies, the insurance companies refuse to say whether they paid the family. Interviewed: Robert Stewart, NYPD detective; Laura Italiano, New York Post reporter; Steve D'Annunzio, Locker's friend; Robert Miller, insurance executive; Al Brodbeck, who hired Locker as a business coach; Kevin Flynn and Jeff Hershman, detectives; Kenneth Minor, murder suspect; Dan Gotlin, Minor's defense lawyer; Melvin Fleming, Harlem resident; Murray Weiss, police reporter and CBS News Consultant; Peter Casolaro, prosecutor; Michael Barry, investigator; Cyril Wecht, forensic scientist; Kirt Markle, jury member. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

"What They Believe" - a report on the deep traditions, beliefs, and interesting spiritual histories of three religions not well known in the United States -- Hinduism, Zoroastrianism, and the Bahá'í faith. (1) Hinduism is the world's oldest faith tradition that does not have a prophet, a common creed, or doctrine. North America is home to an estimated 1.5 million Hindus, with the majority of adherents living in India. (2) Zoroastrianism is a 3,500-year-old faith tradition based on the teachings of the prophet Zarathustra in ancient Persia, now Iran. Zoroastrians believe in one God (monotheism) and that through the acts of good thoughts, words, and deeds one can triumph over evil. Their population was once in the millions, but today it is estimated at about 125,000 worldwide with an estimated 25,000 Zoroastrians in the United States. (3) The Bahá'í faith was founded by Bahá'u'lláh in 19th-century Persia (now Iran). Bahá'ís believe that there is only one religion which has been progressively revealed by a series of Divine Messengers of which their prophet, Bahá'u'lláh, is said to be the latest in a succession that includes Krishna, Abraham, Zoroaster, Moses, Buddha, Christ and Mohammed. Includes comments from: John H. Hawley, Professor of Religion, Barnard College; Anand Venkatkrishnan, Columbia University, Doctoral Student of Religion; Dr. Uma Mysorekar, President, Hindu Temple Society of North America; members of the Rivetna family: Rohinton Rivetna, Founder & Former President, Federation of the Zoroastrian Association of North America (FEZANA); his wife, Roshan Rivetna, Former Editor of Fezana, a publication dedicated to Zoroastrianism in North America; and their son Cyrus Rivetna, an architect; Glen Fullmer, Director of Communications, Bahá'í National Center; Scott Conrad, Project Manager, Bahá'í Temple Restoration. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 05/05/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Writing on the Wall" - a report on the investigation into the May 5, 2009 murders of the wife and two children of Christopher Coleman, the security chief for televangelist Joyce Meyer Ministries. In Columbia, Illinois on the morning of May 5, Coleman called his neighbor, police detective Justin Barlow, and asked him to check on his wife, Sheri, and their two young sons, Gavin and Garrett, after his own calls had gone unanswered. In months prior he had made local police aware of explicit death threats he was receiving regarding his involvement in Meyer's ministry. Barlow entered the house that morning through an unlocked basement window and upon entry he found spray-painted messages on the walls, with the phrases "you have paid" and "punished", and when he went upstairs he discovered the bodies of Coleman's family strangled to death in each of their beds. An investigation began and soon after police discovered Coleman was having a serious affair with cocktail waitress Tara Lintz, a high school friend of Sheri's. Sheri's friends came to her defense telling police Sheri said her husband was having an affair and if anything happened to her, Chris did it. Moreover, the crime scene lab found the handwriting on the wall matched up to Coleman's script. Two weeks after the murders police had enough evidence to charge Coleman with first-degree murder of his family. The trial for Coleman began two years later and the prosecution's computer experts discovered the e-mail threats came from Coleman's laptop, and one can of the spray paint used on the walls of his house was purchased at a local hardware store with a computerized signature linked to Coleman. The jury needed more evidence though, and it came from one of the jurors who noticed the date on a picture of Coleman and Lintz kissing which proved Coleman lied to them about when the affair began. After a guilty verdict, the judge sentenced Coleman to life in prison. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke to Coleman by phone and he denied planning to divorce Sheri to marry his mistress and said he did not know who murdered his family. On Screen Text Graphics: Sheri's family is suing Joyce Meyer Ministries. They claim the murders might have been prevented if the Ministries had investigated the threats more seriously. May 5th is the three-year anniversary of the murders of Sheri, Garrett and Gavin Coleman. Interviewed: Chris Coleman; Justin Barlow, detective; Joe Edwards, Columbia Police Chief; Major Jeff Connor, Major Case Squad, St. Louis; Vanessa Riegerix, neighbor; Nick Pistor, St. Louis Post-Dispatch reporter; Kathy LaPlante, Sheri's friend; Angela DiCiccio, Sheri's mother; Meegan Turnbeaugh, Sheri's friend; Connie and Ron Coleman; Chris' parents; Ed Parkinson, prosecutor; Bill Margulis, Chris's lawyer; Gina West, juror; Olivia Shopinski, juror; Jonece Pearman, jury foreperson. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/12/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Ransom" - a report on the mysterious 2008 disappearance of Robert Wiles, the son of millionaire business owner Tom Wiles, who received an e-mail ransom note demanding $750,000 for the safe return of the 26-year-old, who had been working at the family business, National Flight Services in Lakeland, Florida, an aircraft maintenance company with offices and clients worldwide. On April 3, Tom Wiles opened an e-mail from his son Robert. It was a ransom demand signed, "Group X", and asked for Tom to put $750,000 in Robert's office if he ever wanted to see his son alive again. Robert was last seen by his co-worker Stobert (Toby) Holt on April 1, 2008, and the kidnappers set a deadline of April 8th to receive the money. Tom involved the FBI with the ransom note, and when Tom arrived in Florida they set up a sting operation in Robert's office to try to find out who the kidnappers were. After monitoring a box placed in Robert's office filled with coffee that weighed the same as $750,000, days started to pass by with no one entering the room. Toby Holt, Operations Manager, was handpicked by Tom to assist the FBI in monitoring Robert's office. There were no leads in the case until agents tracked Robert's phone records to see which cell towers were used, and this lead them to subpoena the Florida Turnpike Authority to view video of toll booths on the Polk Parkway. When Tom viewed the tape, he recognized Toby Holt's car pass through a toll. In the picture Toby's right arm looks to be in a position of holding a phone, and when agents went through Holt's phone record, it showed his number was not in use while going through the tolls, piquing the FBI's interest. This is when the investigation, which had been focused on the Wiles' family and an alcoholic ex-employee, Steve Lindsey, turned solely towards Toby Holt. When agents brought Holt in for questioning they determined his whereabouts on the night of Robert's disappearance were unsubstantiated and he lied when he said he didn't have any guns in his car when they found a handgun under the hood. Moreover, Holt was cheating on his wife with at least a dozen women. The FBI called in reinforcements to help move along the case with local police and detectives, and this group discovered Holt and Robert's phones were traveling together to make for a good circumstantial case. On December 19, 2009 agents arrested Toby Holt for extortion, kidnapping, and first-degree murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke with Holt while he was in South County Jail through television cameras and monitors, and he maintained his innocence. The trial opened in January 2012 and the prosecution used phone records as evidence in addition to work e-mails, showcasing a contentious relationship between Robert and Holt as a motive. Holt's lawyer said he was taking a sip of Diet Dr. Pepper when the photo was taken of him going through the toll booth, not using a phone; he pinned everything on ex-worker Steve Lindsey. However, Steve Lindsey died of lung cancer while the case was under investigation. The jury spent four hours deliberating and the judge read, "...the defendant is guilty of manslaughter." Holt was sentenced to 30 years in prison for manslaughter and extortion. Robert's body has yet to be found. On Screen Text Graphics: Toby Holt is appealing his conviction based on insufficient evidence. Holt is currently scheduled for release in 2039. He will be 72 years old. Interviewed: Tom Wiles, Robert's father; Audra Wiles, Robert's sister; Pamela, Robert's mother; Tierney Wiles, Robert's sister; David Palmisano, Robert's friend; Jim Bucenell, FBI Special Agent; Dan Kelly, FBI Special Agent; Janie Beard, Robert's barber; Joel Valle, airplane engine repair company owner; Tommy Ray, Florida Special Agent; Cass Castillo, prosecutor; Howardene Garrett, Assistant Public Defender; Stobert (Toby) Holt, NFS worker; Beverly Holt, Toby's ex-wife. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "An Officer and a Hero" - a report on the October 5, 2009 botched robbery and home invasion that left off-duty St. Louis Police Officer Isabella Lovadina and her then-boyfriend, firefighter Nick Koenig grievously wounded and his cousin Gina Stallis dead. Lovadina and Koenig were taking an EMT class together in October 2009 in St. Louis, Missouri, and after class one evening they went to Nick's grandmother's house to study. When Nick walked Isabella to her car at 12:30am, she placed her gun and bulletproof vest inside and went to give Nick a hug goodbye. Two males approached them with guns drawn demanding whatever they had, and when Isabella said she didn't have anything they pointed to Nick's grandmother's house and directed them to go inside. Isabella and Nick were forced to their knees in the hallway upon entry. One of the gunmen, described as wearing a red hoodie with two gold teeth, went upstairs where Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, his Aunt Rose, his cousin Gina Stallis and her two young sons were sleeping. The gunman forced Gina to carry a large TV down the stairs and the three women were then pressured to kneel next to Nick and Isabella while the two boys were left alone. Isabella decided to lunge up against the gunman described as wearing a black hoodie and started fighting with him, while Nick fought with the other man. Rose ran out the front door and started approaching neighbor's houses for help, with no avail. Shots rung out and Isabella was struck by the man in the black hoodie five times, point blank; Nick was shot three times, and Gina suffered shots that killed her. Gina's son Sam, 9-years old at the time, called 911 and soon after police and EMT's arrived. The intruders ran away before cops arrived. Isabella and Nick were rushed to the hospital. Nick had a bullet stuck in the back of his neck, too close to the spinal cord to operate on. A short time after the robbery a man checked into the ER at Barnes Hospital across town with a gunshot wound in his hand, and the ER technician tending to him noticed his gold teeth, the red hoodie covered in blood, and told the cops immediately. Police arrived at Barnes Hospital and arrested Ledale Nathan when they identified his red hoodie, and chased the man in the black hoodie, Mario Coleman, into a park and arrested him. Police found Nick's grandmother's jewelry and a black gun tossed in the park nearby. After Isabella identified the two men they were charged with first degree murder. Nathan was 16-years old at the time of the incident but he stood trial as an adult and the jury found him guilty. Coleman's trial was next and he was also found guilty of murder. Rose Whitrock has taken custody of her grandchildren. Two and a half years after the incident Nick was in a car accident and soon after he coughed up the bullet that was lodged in his cervical spine. Isabella retired from the Police Department and at her final roll call Mayor Francis G. Slay of St. Louis proclaimed February 6, 2012 as Police Officer Isabella Lovadina day. On Screen Text Graphics: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Jr. were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Nick hopes to one day finish the class he started and become an EMT. Interviewed: Isabella Lovadina, victim; Nick Koenig, victim; Rose Whitrock, Nick's aunt, victim; Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, victim; Sgt. Roger Engelhardt, St. Louis Police Dept.; Officer Lori Brewer, St. Louis Police Dept.; Beth Orwick, prosecutor; John Bird, prosecutor. (Producers: Shoshanah Wolfson, Sara Rodriguez)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "One of Their Own" - a follow-up report about how and why decorated female Los Angeles Police Detective Stephanie Lazarus was charged with the 1986 murder of Sherri Mae Rasmussen. The victim, newly married to John Ruetten, Lazarus' ex-boyfriend, was attacked, beaten and shot to death in her Los Angeles home. Police pursued a robbery motive, even though the only things missing were her car and her marriage certificate. For more than two decades, her father, Nels Rasmussen, has been on a frustrating quest to find out the truth about his daughter's murder. Believing that Sherri's husband, John Ruetten, was not involved, he says he has tried many times to get the police to focus on John's ex-girlfriend Stephanie Lazarus. Sherri had told her family that Stephanie was still obsessed with John and believed that Sherri had stolen John away from her. Recently, the LAPD cold case squad quietly re-opened the case. A piece of evidence -- a saliva sample taken from a bite mark on Sherri's arm -- was sent to a DNA lab. The results indicated that it belonged to a woman, and led police to suspect one of their own: Stephanie Lazarus. Finally Nels Rasmussen felt that police were listening to him. Detectives trailed Stephanie Lazarus to obtain a DNA sample and the results were stunning: the DNA from Sherri's bite mark and that of Stephanie Lazarus matched. In a covert operation, a team planned her arrest and in June 2009, Lazarus was charged with first-degree murder. Her trial is expect to begin shortly. 05/22/10 onscreen text graphic: If convicted, Stephanie Lazarus could face life in prison. A judge ruled out the death penalty. 07/19/11 updated onscreen text graphic: Stephanie Lazarus's trial is set for August. The 05/26/12 follow-up covers the trial of Stephanie Lazarus: The defense maintained the DNA evidence was mishandled for two decades while prosecutors still had a strong circumstantial case. After four weeks and over 60 witnesses, Lazarus was found guilty. At her sentencing Sherri's mother, sister, and husband spoke to the court describing their own pain and highlighting the type of person Sherri Mae Rasmussen was. John Ruetten apologized to the Rasmussen family, feeling particularly sorry it was someone connected to him who committed the murder. A judge sentenced Lazarus to 27 years to life in the state penitentiary with a chance of parole after 16 years. On Screen Text Graphic for the 05/26/12 follow-up: The Rasmussen's sued the LAPD for covering up a murder committed by one of their own. A judge dismissed the case. The family is appealing that decision. Interviewed: Andrew Blankstein and Joel Rubin, LA Times reporters; Sherri's sister Teresa Lane; Nels and Loretta Rasmussen, Sherri's parents; Jayne Goldberg and Peggy Crabtree, Sherri's friends; Mark Overland, Lazarus' attorney; John Taylor, the Rasmussen's attorney; Alan Tarsky, Sherri's neighbor; Burt Luper, a retired LAPD detective who is now on Lazarus' defense team; Steven Lazarus, Stephanie's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/29/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The OC" (10:00-11:00p) - an updated rebroadcast of a report on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, McLaughlin, a devoted father and family man became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Following the murder, police initially considered a business associate, but then focused their investigation closer to home. His ex-wife and daughters had airtight alibis. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. McLaughlin's family, when asked, knew nothing about him, but police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview regarding the case, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, says that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. He says that Johnston told him that McLaughlin was once her boss but had become her business partner and that there was no romantic relationship -- she had led him to believe that McLaughlin's money was her own. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life; moving to the East Coast and becoming a personal trainer. In 2009, police called the McLaughlin family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnson Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. According to Naposki, the only person to profit from McLaughlin's murder was Nanette. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. After four weeks of trial, the jury convicted Naposki of murder. 10/29/11 on screen text graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. The 05/29/12 update includes: At trial, Nanette Johnston was found guilty of murder. Eight months after his conviction, Eric Naposki contacted 48 HOURS with information which he said would reveal who really killed Bill McLaughlin. After pouring over evidence while incarcerated, he believes that Nanette arranged a hit for $50,000 with a Hollywood producer he had done business with and introduced her to. Police have investigated, but they consider the producer an unlikely suspect. Nanette Johnston was recently sentenced to life in prison. Naposki continues his appeal. On Screen Text Graphic: Eric Naposki is now scheduled to be sentenced in August. Included interviews with: Matt Murphy, Orange County Assistant District Attorney; daughters Jenny McLaughlin and Kim McLaughlin; brother Patrick McLaughlin; Don Kalal, McLaughlin's best friend; lead detective Tom Voth; Eric Naposki; Angela Licata, Naposki's sister; Dave Matthews, Leonard Jomsky, Rob Frias, friends of Eric Naposki's; Angelo McDonald, Gary Pohlson, John Pappalardo, Naposki's defense attorneys; Larry Montgomery, investigator; Dave Byington, retired detective.
